We are pleased to present Emotionally Focused Therapy for Couples Workshops in 2012

Limited places available

Relationships Australia
VICTORIA

Emotionally Focused Therapy for Couples (EFT) offers a comprehensive theory of adult love and attachment, and a process for healing distressed relationships. This experiential–systemic therapy focuses on helping partners reprocess the emotional responses that maintain their negative interaction patterns. Through a series of nine steps carried out within 12 to 24 sessions, the therapist leads the couple away from conflict deadlock into new bonding interactions.

RAV is offering a Fundamentals Externship as an introduction to EFT, and advanced core skills training for those who want certification as an EFT therapist. All training is approved by the International Centre for Excellence in EFT (ICEEFT).

Fundamentals of EFT Externship

16 – 19 March 2012
Dr Jennifer Fitzgerald

Workshop participants will learn the theoretical underpinnings of EFT:

- assess and formulate couple distress within an attachment theory framework
- work through the nine steps of EFT
- elicit and work with emotion as it occurs in the sessions
- practise the interventions that create change in EFT by reprocessing negative affect, and facilitating new relational experiences that foster a secure bond in an experiential way.

Participants will observe the trainer's work.

Cost: $1350 (inc GST), covering manuals and articles, morning and afternoon tea and lunch. A $500 deposit is required to secure your place.

Advanced Core Skills Training

Part A

1 – 4 June 2012
Dr Jennifer Fitzgerald

Part B

9 – 12 November 2012
Dr Veronica Kallos-Lilly

Prerequisite: 4-Day Fundamentals of EFT Externship. The eight days of the advanced course are required for certification.*

Small-group experience is focused on enriching clinical understanding of the EFT model, and developing the advanced skills required. The nine steps of EFT are covered in depth and woven into discussions of your own and the facilitators' work. You will have the opportunity to share your work and receive feedback.

Participants will learn to:

- foster de-escalation of conflict and tension
- apply the attachment framework throughout the nine steps
- track and deepen emotion in the here and now
- develop specific interventions to help couples reprocess negative affect, and foster a secure attachment bond
- work through impasses in the therapeutic process
- end therapy.

The use of experiential skills-building and role-play exercises will help you grasp nuances embedded in the therapeutic process. The tone of the group is one of safety and supportiveness. Group size is limited to 15.

To optimise learning, you must have an active caseload of couples, and be prepared to share your work at least once, in video or audio tape format. Transcripts are also acceptable, if role played, with you as the therapist, and group participants filling in for the couple.

Cost: $2700 (inc GST), covering manuals and articles, morning and afternoon tea and lunch. A deposit of $750 is required to secure your place.
